Biographical Sketch

A.G (Tassos) Malliaris was born on November 10, 1942 in Greece and was raised in Egypt before moving to the United States. Malliaris received his B.A. in Economics from the Athens School of Economics in 1965. Before beginning his graduate work Malliaris worked for the Industrial Planning Division of the Center of Planning and Economic Research from 1965-66 and on the World Bank Project for the Industrial Development of Greece in 1966 in Athens. He went on to receive a M.A in Economics in 1970 and a year later in 1971 he earned his Ph.D. in Economics both from the University of Oklahoma. Malliaris continued his education in the field of Mathematics earning a M.A. from the University of Oklahoma in 1972 and a Ph.D. in 1986 from the University of Chicago. During his time at Oklahoma, he served as a research assistant and began teaching courses in Economics and Mathematics.

Malliaris was then hired as an Assistant Professor of Economics in 1972 at Loyola University Chicago. He would become an Associate Professor of Economics in 1978 and eventually a Professor of Economics in 1982 and a Professor of Finance in 1998. Malliaris served as the Chair of the Department of Economics from 1974-1978 and was named the Walter F. Mullady, Sr. Professor in 1987. He has served as the Associate Dean and Director of The Graduate School of Business from 1977-89, on the Dean's Advisory Committee in 1995-97 and as Interim Dean of the School of Business Administration from 2004-05. Malliaris was named the Outstanding Faculty Member by the Graduate School of Business Alumni Association in 1977 and 1994. Malliaris was also named the Faculty Researcher of the Year by the School of Business Administration in 1999 and 2008. He has also taught many executive courses in Chicago, London, Rome, Milan, Athens, Vienna, Prague, Tokyo, Hong Kong, Beijing and Bangkok. Malliaris served as President of the North American Economics and Finance Association in 2001 and The Athenian Policy Forum since 2007. He also served as the President in 2011-12 and Chairman of the Board of Trustees from 2012-14 of The Multinational Finance Society. Malliaris has been named as an Editor or Associate Editor of the International Review of Financial Analysis, Multinational Finance Journal, Journal of Economic Asymmetries, European Research Studies, Frontiers in Finance and Economics, The University of Piraeus Journal of Business and International Journal of Portfolio Analysis and Management.
