When the two nun chaperones of a busload of Catholic high school girls argue about expressions of faith and the role of the Church in the sixties, trouble is most certain to follow. Where Angels Go... Trouble Follows depicts the rivalry between a conservative Mother Superior and her progressive younger counterpart Sister George as they ferry their students to an interfaith youth rally held in Santa Barbara, CA. Amplified by the antics of rebellious students and extraordinary encounters, this 1968 comedy film promises great laughs and timeless conversations about faith and the Church.

Join us for the screening of Where Angels Go... Trouble Follows, starring Rosalind Russell, Stella Stevens, and directed by James Neilson. The film will be followed by a discussion lead by Dr. Bren Ortega Murphy.

Pizza and drinks will be provided
