Right to Report

Any individual who has experienced sexual and/or gender-based misconduct (including but not limited to sexual assault; sexual harassment; sexual exploitation; intimate-partner, dating, and/or domestic violence; and stalking) has a right to report the incident to Loyola, law enforcement (Chicago Police Department), both, or neither. Reports received by faculty or staff will be directed to the Office for Equity & Compliance ("OEC") and will be considered private and sensitive.

- Any person may report Title IX sex discrimination or sexual harassment (whether or not the person reporting is the affected party), via the report form found here: https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?LoyolaUnivChicago&layout\_id=9
- Any student or employee (or prospective student/employee) may also file a formal complaint at any time. We recommend anyone considering a formal complaint first connect with a member of the OEC staff (equity@luc.edu) to understand the implications.
  - For more information, visit the OEC's "Reporting Discrimination and Sexual Misconduct" page: <https://www.luc.edu/equity/gethelp/reportingcomplaintoptions/>
  - ERP Complaint Form: https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?LoyolaUnivChicago&layout\_id=13
  - Grievance Process Complaint Form: https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?LoyolaUnivChicago&layout\_id=14

If any student wishes to receive confidential support (without triggering any additional outreach or action by the University), they should instead contact one of the following confidential University resources:

- Confidential Advisor/Advocate: Mira Krivoshey, Associate Director for Health Promotions and Advocacy Services (mkrivoshey@luc.edu)
