

SCHOOL of LAW

Office of the Law Registrar
25 E. Pearson Street
Room 1203
Chicago, Illinois 60611
Phone (312) 915-7167

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO SCHOOL OF LAW
APPLICATION FOR VISITING JD STUDENTS OR ATTORNEYS TO REGISTER FOR ONLINE SUMMER COURSES

The following regulations apply to online courses:

- Under American Bar Association rules, JD students may earn a maximum of fifteen credits online.
- Students must complete 28 credit hours of JD coursework in order to enroll in online courses.
- State rules for admission to the bar differ. Students should consult with each jurisdiction in which they intend to practice to ensure that completion of online courses will qualify for bar admission.

Online Summer Session Applications are due April 1st. Please submit all application materials electronically to health-law@luc.edu.

Name _____
(Last) (First) (Middle)

Social Security Number _____ - _____ - _____ Date of Birth ____ / ____ / ____

Online Summer Term Visiting Year _____

Present Address

Street _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Phone (_____) _____ (_____) _____
(Home) (Work or Mobile)

Permanent Address

Street _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Phone (_____) _____ (_____) _____
(Home) (Work or Mobile)

E-Mail Address _____

Sex _____ Male _____ Female

Name of Law School you are presently attending: _____

Number of Hours Completed _____ Have you previously taken law courses at Loyola? _____

Please list below the online summer course(s) you are interested in taking:

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

ATTORNEY:

Are you an attorney? _____ Yes _____ No State: _____

If yes, please state your reason for wanting to take a course: _____

ALUMNI:

Are you an Alum of Loyola University Chicago School of Law? _____ Yes _____ No

If yes, year of graduation _____

CURRENT LAW SCHOOL STUDENTS ONLY:

A letter of good standing from the Dean or Law School Registrar must be submitted before you can be enrolled in online courses at Loyola. The letter should state that you are currently a student in good standing, that you have permission to take an online course or courses at Loyola, and any special requirements that your school may impose. Your application will not be complete until this letter is received. The letter should be addressed to the address below and must be submitted electronically to health-law@luc.edu. Failure to submit your letter and/or application electronically will result in a delay in your enrollment.

Loyola University Chicago School of Law
Registrar Office
Room 1203
25 East Pearson Street
Chicago, IL 60611

I acknowledge that entry into the course/s is pending faculty approval and space availability. All registration must be processed by the end of the late registration period. I am also aware that upon course registration, I will incur a tuition bill from the University Bursar's Office.

I affirm that the information I have provided on this application is accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Signature

Date

Please submit completed application to health-law@luc.edu.

Disclaimers

Enrolling in Loyola University Chicago's Online Summer Session does not confer visiting or transfer status on any non-Loyola student. Participating in online summer courses will not provide non-Loyola students with any advantages in the transfer or visiting admissions process. Non-Loyola students may seek to count these credits toward their JD degrees but will still earn their degrees from their home institutions.