5) Requirements for Transfer of Credit

- a. You must have compelling reasons for seeking credit from another school. A detailed letter explaining these reasons and a recent transcript must accompany this form.
- b. All requests for transfer credit should be approved prior to registration for that credit at another institution. Loyola retains the right to deny credit toward a Loyola degree for academic work that is not pre-approved for transfer credit. Any questions should be referred to Associate Dean Stephen Rushin at srushin1@luc.edu.
- c. As part of your application, the host law school will require a “Letter of Good Standing” (sometimes called a “Dean’s Letter”) from the Law Registrar Office, (Room 1203). You must submit the request in writing at: Law-Registrar@luc.edu.
- d. You must complete all required courses at Loyola. Required courses include Property, Civil Procedure, Torts, Constitutional Law, Criminal Law, Contracts, Legal Writing I, II, and III, a “perspective course” as approved by Loyola, and Professional Responsibility.

In addition, Loyola University Chicago School of Law requires that all students complete a skills course, a course with instruction in bias, cross-cultural competency, and racism (BCCR) (if admitted in Fall 2022 or later), and a minimum of 6 semester hours of experiential learning, only 3 of which can be completed through a comprehensive simulation.

- e. Courses that you wish to be counted toward your Loyola degree must be approved prior to the beginning of each semester. You must complete and submit this form prior to the time that you register for courses at another school. You will be notified if a course is not approved.

- f. Loyola will not grant credit for ungraded, pass/fail or credit/no credit courses from another law school. Only courses in which all students receive a grade will be permitted to transfer to Loyola. (As a result, credit for externships, independent research projects and similar ungraded courses will not transfer back to Loyola.)
- g. A minimum of 86 semester hours are required for graduation from Loyola University Chicago School of Law. You must receive a grade of “C” or better (or its equivalent) for each course for which you seek transfer credit. You will not be granted credit at Loyola for transfer courses with a grade of less than “C” or its equivalent. (The grade of “C-” will not transfer and be credited toward your Loyola degree.)
- h. Transfer grades will not be used to calculate your cumulative grade point average at Loyola, but will be used to calculate the denial or lowering (not achievement or improvement) of honors status at graduation. In other words, low grades at the host school will be used to deny or lower honors status based on Loyola grades only, and high grades will not be used to bring you into or improve honors status.
- i. You are responsible for having your host school forward an official transcript of your record each semester. Credit will not be granted without receipt of an original transcript. Loyola will not submit the proof of legal studies document to bar examination authorities without an official transcript listing all transfer credits.
- j. Before transfer credit will be awarded toward your Loyola degree, you must submit a check in the amount of $250 per semester payable to “Loyola University Chicago School of Law” to the Law Registrar’s Office, 25 East Pearson, Suite 1203, Chicago, Illinois 60611.
- k. If you plan to sit for a bar exam other than the Illinois bar exam, you are responsible for sending the proof of legal studies form from that state’s bar examiners to the Loyola School of Law Registrar in order to have it completed and submitted to bar examination authorities.

Please signify that you understand these provisions by checking yes or no below.

Yes No (See Associate Dean Rushin if you do not understand the above provisions.)

If you will be a visiting student at another university for a semester or more and you have taken out loans, you must complete a Consortium Agreement with Loyola’s Financial Aid Office (FAO). If you have questions about how this will affect your financial aid, please contact FAO at lufinaid@luc.edu or 773-508-7704 for more information.
