David Enlow, hailed for his 'enormous virtuosity,' (Stuttgarter Zeitung) and his 'gutsy, yet sensitive performance' (Organ Canada) is a concert and church musician who has performed across the United States, in Canada, and across England and Europe. Mr. Enlow's recent recording of the complete major organ works of César Franck on the Pro Organo label, Pater Seraphicus, has been described as 'masterful', 'thrilling', 'passionate', and 'utterly compelling'.

Mr. Enlow is Organist and Choir Master of the Church of the Resurrection in New York, where he directs a professional choir, and a member of the organ faculty of The Juilliard School, responsible for the service playing component of the curriculum. He is also Sub-Dean of the New York City Chapter, American Guild of Organists, and a member of the Guild's National Committee on Professional Certification, serving as an examiner of organists nationwide. His choir at the Church of the Resurrection performs over fifty mass settings each season, often with orchestra.

Mr. Enlow holds both a bachelor's and a master's degree from The Juilliard School where he studied with Paul Jacobs and John Weaver. He also studied at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia, and with John Tuttle in Toronto.

David is a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists, winner of the S. Lewis Elmer & Fellowship prizes, and an Associate of the Royal Canadian College of Organists, winner of the Barker Prize. He has also won several national performance competition first prizes including those of the Arthur Poister Competition and the Albert Schweitzer Organ Festival USA.
