

CURRICULUM VITAE OF DAVID M. ROMANELLI

PERSONAL DATA

School of Communication
Loyola University Chicago
Chicago, IL 60626
Office: 312.915.6919

EDUCATION

M.A., Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, August 1992, Speech Communication.

B.S., Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, Carbondale, Illinois, May, 1991, Speech Communication (Minor in History).

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

A. Faculty

Loyola University, Chicago, IL, Instructor, Director of Debate, August, 1997 to present. Instructor Cmun 101, Introduction to Public Speaking; Cmun 150, Communication Processes; Cmun 232, Persuasion Cmun 226; Argumentation and Advocacy Cmun 225; Small Group Communication Cmun 238; Cmun 133/333, Debate Practicum, Cmun 227; Organizational Communication.

---- As Director of Debate, duties include directing a regionally- and nationally-competitive CEDA/NDT debate program; supervision of Loyola's participation in the Chicago Urban Debate League (including hosting three major high school tournaments); coordination of team's travel, research and budget; recruitment of new debaters and awarding scholarships. Qualified a team for the National Debate Tournament in 2003 and 2004. Transferred program to the NPDA spring 2006. Qualified a team for the National Parliamentary Tournament of Excellence spring 2011.

Wright State University, Dayton, Ohio, Instructor, Director of Forensics, August, 1993 to June, 1997. Instructor Co 232, Argumentation and Debate; Co 141, Small Group Communication; Co 101, Introduction to Public Speaking; Co 130/330, Independent Study (Debate).

---- As Director of Forensics, duties included overseeing nationally-competitive debate team (winner of Brady Lee Garrison Award, 1994; fifth place national spring sweepstakes, 1995); direction of team travel (approximately 12 tournaments per year); direction of library research and argument preparation; recruitment of new debaters; overseeing forensics travel budget; and moderator /coordinator of on campus debates.

John Carroll University, University Heights, Ohio, Instructor, Director of Forensics, August, 1992 to May, 1993. Instructor Co 245, Argumentation and Debate (four sections); Co 145, Independent Study (Debate).

---- As Director of Forensics, duties included supervision of nationally-competitive debate team; preparation of team travel schedule and travel budget; installation of Lexis/Nexis computer software; overseeing argument development and library research; and recruitment of new debaters.

B. Graduate Appointments

Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Graduate Assistant, Forensics Coach, August, 1991 to August, 1992. Instructor Com 135, Introduction to Public Speaking, fall semester, 1991.

PUBLICATIONS

Romanelli, David. "How to Win an Argument" Loyola Magazine Summer 2009 p.10

McGee, Brian R., Romanelli, David M. (1997). "Policy Debate as Fiction: In Defense of Utopian Fiat," Contemporary Argumentation and Debate, 18:24-33.

CONFERENCE PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

Romanelli, David M., (1999, November). Balancing Family and Work
Presented at the Conference for the National Communication Association, Chicago, IL.

McGee, Brian R., Romanelli, David M. (1996, November). Policy Debate as Fiction: In Defense of Utopian Fiat. Presented at the Conference for the Speech Communication Association, San Diego, CA.

Romanelli, David M., (1994, April). What Debaters Like and Dislike in the CEDA Experience. Presented at the Joint Conference of the Central States Communication Association, Oklahoma City, OK.

Romanelli, David M., Shulman, Gary M., Courtright, Jeffrey L. (1993, April). Empowerment: An Alternative for Coaching Debate. Presented at the Joint Conference of the Central States Communication Association and Southern States Communication Association, Lexington, KY.

ACTIVITIES

I was an invited lecturer for the University of Chicago's Graham School program on leadership in 2009.

I was an invited lecturer for the University of Chicago's Graham School program, which supports the Institute for the Study of Democracy, Leadership, and Service targeted to South Korean undergraduate students in 2008.

Hosted public debate versus Western Illinois University Fall 2005.

Supervised Magis involvement for Argumentation and Advocacy 2004-5.

Appeared on Chicago Tonight on three occasions in 2004 to discuss the Presidential, Vice-Presidential, and Senatorial debates.

Presentation: "How to watch the Presidential Debates" held October 2004 at the Admiral on the Lake senior citizen home.

Coordinator for Loyola's participation with the Chicago Urban Debate league and volunteer judge, 1998-present. Hosted three of the largest urban high school debate tournaments in the nation 2000, 2001, 2002.

Coordinator, seminars on humor and the disabled, 1997.

Advisor, Miami Valley School Speech and Debate Team, 1996.

Advisor, Beavercreek High School Debate Team, 1996.