Mission Statement

The School of Social Work at Loyola University Chicago created Praxis: Where Reflection & Practice Meet was created to give voice to the scholarly work of students and alumni. Our mission is to encourage and support the development of social work knowledge that will enhance the lives of the clients we serve, embody the humanistic values of our profession, and promote social justice and care for vulnerable populations. Praxis respects and welcomes all viewpoints.

Editorial Policy

Praxis is published by students in the School of Social Work at Loyola University Chicago. The editorial board is composed of masters and doctoral social work students. The board encourages students and alumni of the School of Social Work to submit papers that provide insight into clinical, policy, research, education and other areas relevant to social work practice. Submissions are accepted throughout the year and the priority deadline for the annual Fall publication is the last day of January. Submissions to the journal are reviewed anonymously by the the editorial board and edits accepted papers with permission from the authors. Papers should be no longer than 20 double-spaced pages and submitted as a Microsoft Word document file (.doc). All identifying information, including contact information, should be on a separate page. Responsibility for accuracy of information contained in written submissions rests solely with the authors. Opinions expressed in the journal are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the School of Social Work or the Editorial Board.

All inquiries, submissions and subscriptions should be directed to:
